10 Peter hired men to fish for him, Peter sold the fish, he was a higher class.

28 James and John could have been cousins of Jeshu because their father Zebedee was married to a woman named Salome. A woman named Salome was Jeshu's mother's sister. James and John might have also been cousins of John the Baptist.

30 In the Epistles of the false apostles written in 180 AD John was supposed to marry Mary Magdalene but they canceled it to become followers of Jeshu. We don't know about John's death.

31 James the lesser is the son of a woman named Mary.

37 Philip is the only other false apostle besides Peter who has a wife and children.

41 we don't know what prophetess means, there are many different views on what it means between oracle and virgin

43 Bartholomew means Bar which is Aramaic for Ben which means "son of". His name means "bar Talmay" which cannot be right because the son of Talmay is Nathaniel.

45 Talmai in Hebrew means "farmer".

47 Bartholomew died in Armenia in 68 A.D.

51 Mark writes towards a Roman or gentile crowd

53 Tax collectors worked for the Romans. There's a good chance Jeshu spoke in favor of the tax collectors because Matthew was one not as a model form of faith.

59 Thomas's full name is Judas Thomas, not to be confused with Judas Iscariot

63 resurrection was not unheard of with Elijah and Enoch

67 Jude and Judas Iscariot may be the same person

69 most scholars agree Jude and Thaddeus are the same person

78 Judas Iscariot means Judas from Kerioth

91 Paul traveled with Barnabas. The Pharisees have more in common with Judaism as it is practiced today than the Sadducees do.

95 Jeshu supposedly fulfilled the law thereby freeing people from it while at the same time requiring people to follow some parts of the law.